Huzzah! Huzzah! Huzzah!

When was the last time you saw one thousand boys and girls shouting hosannas to the Lord from the depth of their hearts?

And have you ever experienced a multitudinous gathering of multi-generationally-minded children waving hands, toy swords, and flags as they proclaimed joyous “huzzahs” in honor of Christian forefathers used by God to lay a righteous foundation for this experiment in freedom we call America?

Like thousands who gathered on the banks of the James River in the summer of 2007 to praise the Lord on the 400th anniversary of the Christian founding of America, I saw it. It was beautiful.

That moment in time—with its contagious spirit of holy enthusiasm—is pictured on the cover of this tenth anniversary edition of the Vision Forum Family Catalog.

And we chose it for an important reason: The Christian family needs an enthusiastic vision of victory. Fathers need it too. So do mothers, daughters, and sons. We need a vision of victory rooted in Holy Scripture, motivated by the living reality of Christ in our life—a vision of victory that presupposes warfare against the dark messages of our culture, and a vision of victory that gives hope to those engaged in the defining battle of our generation—the fight for the preservation and prosperity of the Christian family. As the prophet has explained: “And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, ‘The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in’” (Isaiah 58:12).

For nearly ten years, we have proclaimed a vision of victory built upon the foundations of historic Christian orthodoxy, including the Lordship of Christ, the sovereignty of God, and the sufficiency of Scripture. But it is also a practical vision we have communicated in different ways: By emphasizing the importance of distinctively Christian education through presuppositionally biblical training and parent-to-child discipleship; by pointing fathers to their duties as household shepherds and women to the nobility of femininity, industry, motherhood, and home; by reminding Christian men of their duty to sacrifice for “women and children first”; and by encouraging a culture of virtuous boyhood and girlhood. And for ten years we have prayed the sentiments of Psalm 144: “Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children.... That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace” (vs. 11-12).

We give glory to Jesus alone for ten years of kindnesses to us, including the way He has allowed this message to be widely distributed. Over the course of the last decade, the Lord has allowed the message of this ministry to reach millions. More than five million catalogs have been mailed to homes across the country. Our resources have shipped to approximately sixty-five countries around the world, and more than two million Christ-glorifying, Great Commission-advancing tapes and CDs have reached families from America to the Sudan.

For this tenth anniversary edition, we have endeavored to communicate the breadth and the depth of this vision through the themes and resources presented. You can hear it through the many voices of hope, honor, faith, and practical wisdom which populate these pages. For example, in the important new release, The Return of the Daughters (pg. 4), you will meet visionary women who have rejected the priorities of our postmodern culture and embraced the mission objectives of biblical womanhood instead. The world may have a dark message for the daughters of the twenty-first century, but these women echo the vision of victory of the Psalmist: “...the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O LORD” (Psalm 97:8).

Another voice is that of Dr. Voddie Baucham, Jr., a giant of a man with an even bigger message for those fathers who will reclaim their patriarchal responsibilities and reprioritize the home as a centerpiece for discipleship and evangelism (see pg. 20).

For a heavy dose of encouragement, make sure to meet Jennie Chancey, the co-author with Stacy McDonald of our latest book, Passionate Housewives Desperate for God (pg. 6). Her controversial vision of victory is borne out of an autobiographical account of a former “Christian” feminist who went from being a die-hard homemaker-in-training to a dedicated career woman and then back again—after Jesus Christ transformed her heart.

And before you put down this catalog, make sure to seek out the vision of victory communicated by those preachers, scholars, and hopeful fathers who stood with the enthusiastic, huzzah-shouting warriors (featured on our cover) when they provided A Comprehensive Defense of the Providence of God in the Founding of America (pg. 10), and then cast a vision of hope for the next one hundred years.

Praise the Lord—much has happened in the ten years since my two sons joined our friend Little Bear Wheeler for our first catalog cover dedicated to “Family, Faith, Fatherhood, and Freedom.” What has not changed are our values and our enthusiastic commitment to blessing the Christian family. We still believe that the need of the hour is for a Gospel-driven vision of victory for the family. As long as we have breath, we will proclaim it. And we will ever be grateful for the privilege to do so. We thank each of you who share this vision, who daily fight for your sons and daughters (Nehemiah 4:14). Most of all, for nearly ten years of battles, victories, blessings, and precious opportunities, we give all glory, honor, thanksgiving, and praise to the Lord God Jehovah.

Huzzah! Huzzah! Huzzah!

Women of Vision THE RETURN OF THE DAUGHTERS

New!

A Vision of Victory for the Single Young Women of the Twenty-First Century

For the first time in America's history, young ladies can expect to encounter a large gap between their years of basic training and the time when they marry... if they marry. Now Christian girls all throughout our country are seriously asking: What's a girl to do with her single years?

Two years after the publication of their best-selling book, So Much More, Anna Sofia and Elizabeth Botkin are taking the message of visionary daughterhood to a new level and into a new medium. This highly-controversial documentary will take viewers into the homes of several young women who have dared to defy today's anti-family culture in pursuit of a biblical approach to daughterhood, using their in-between years to

"After twenty-five years of speaking to the home-school movement, I have never seen a more effective tool to reach the hearts of fathers who love their daughters but don't know how to lead them, than this powerful DVD by Anna Sofia and Elizabeth Botkin."

pioneer a new culture of strength and dignity, and to rebuild Western Civilization, starting with the culture of the home. As the home goes, so often goes the church, and society at large. Learn along with Anna Sofia and Elizabeth, the fulfilling, exciting life of impact and accomplishment that young women can and should have. Discover the power of the family unit and a picture of the biblical home as the center of dominion work—a vibrant center of education, ministry, evangelism, culture, entrepreneurialism, and hospitality. DVD. Approx. 60 mins. 67850 | $20

So Much More

By Anna Sofia and Elizabeth Botkin

This book is not another Christian-teenage-girl "survival guide." So Much More shows how Christian girls can wage war with the world and win.

While many long for godly purpose in their lives, their bewilderment mounts when they observe broken homes, distant fathers, overwhelmed mothers, degrading college courses, and a lack of spiritual guidance—both at home and at church. As hope for security and stability fades, it is no wonder that many young ladies feel orphaned, unprotected, and without hope for their futures. Within the pages of this book, discover practical, biblical solutions for the young woman who wants to do so much more than just "survive" in a savagely feministic, anti-Christian culture. Find the answers a girl is not likely to get from her church, her peers, or her culture. Hardback. 333 pgs. 57882 | $20

STRENGTH & DIGNITY FOR DAUGHTERS

In these life-changing messages, Anna Sofia and Elizabeth Botkin, authors of Vision Forum's best-selling book, So Much More, each share a message on how a daughter can be her father's joy, a real princess in his eyes, and a tremendous help in his work, while looking to him as her hero. Includes two messages: "How to Be Your Father's Ambassador, Arrow, and Princess" and "How I Learned to Help My Father." Compact Disc. 41 mins. 86650 | $10

PASSIONATE HOUSEWIVES: DESPERATE FOR GOD

New!

Fresh Vision for the Hopeful Homemaker

By Jennie Chancey and Stacy McDonald

Have you struggled to reconcile God’s vision of virtuous womanhood with worldly myths that marginalize and mock the role of the homemaker? Do you wrestle with cultural messages that demean the homemaker’s calling and exalt instead the emotionally androgynous power-woman—the wife whose worth is measured only by the degree of her ambition, the shape of her body, or her money-making skills? Such is the image of the “desperate housewife” that the modern media, culture, and feminism are promoting with great energy.

In a delightfully fresh and honest way, this book addresses these issues head-on and provides fresh vision for the hopeful homemaker. Hear a former “Christian” feminist share how she went from a die-hard homemaker-in-training to a dedicated career woman and then back again—after God gripped her heart. See the hollow counterfeit of whitewashed feminism and “me-ology” destroyed. And consider the beautiful picture painted in Scripture of the truly fulfilled homemaker who glories in the hopeful calling God created for her.

Pull up a chair, dust off the cookie crumbs, and join Jennie Chancey and Stacy McDonald as they lay aside stereotypes like the “Stepford wife” and dispel such myths as the 1950s “perfect homemaker.” Laughter and tears will flow, and hopefully you will be infused with a renewed vision for victory as a wife and mother. Discover what it means to be a passionate housewife “desperate” for God alone! Paperback. Approx. 200 pgs. 84332 | $16

THE BLESSED MARRIAGE

Pirates, Ice Caves, Wild Gorillas, & Eskimo Adventures!

Vision Forum Releases Ten Treasured Volumes from the Most Influential and Distinctively Christian Writer of Boys' Adventure Literature of the Nineteenth Century

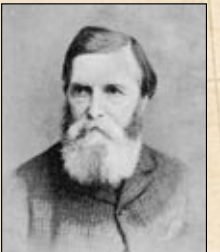

He was perhaps the most influential writer of boys' literature of his generation. He was also a devout Christian of the Scottish Covenanter kind and the only outspoken advocate for Christian boyhood to have a monument paid for and dedicated in his honor by grateful children.

His name was Robert M. Ballantyne. He not only inspired a generation of writers to take up their pens in defense of the ideals of biblical manhood, but he changed the lives of hundreds of thousands of boys for the better with his globe-trekking adventure stories that emphasized Christian character in the face of adversity. In the twentieth century, many publishers declined to carry Ballantyne because of his strong biblical emphasis.

As a featured addition to our catalog, Vision Forum is pleased to introduce R.M. Ballantyne to twenty-first century children. Our Ballantyne Christian Adventure Library comes complete with the faith-affirming Christianity of the original volumes, just as intended by the author.

You can travel to the Coral Island and learn how a group of Christian boys, shipwrecked in the South Pacific, rely on godly wisdom, biblical insight, and plucky courage to outwit and overcome pirates. Or fight your way through polar bears and wild terrain in search of the very top of the world in The Giant of the North, and then search for the most ferocious of jungle animals found in darkest Africa in The Gorilla Hunters. You can even walk again with the undaunted Scottish Covenanters in Hunted and Harried.

R.M. BALLANTYNE

These are just a few of the stories you will encounter in Vision Forum's Ballantyne Christian Adventure Library.

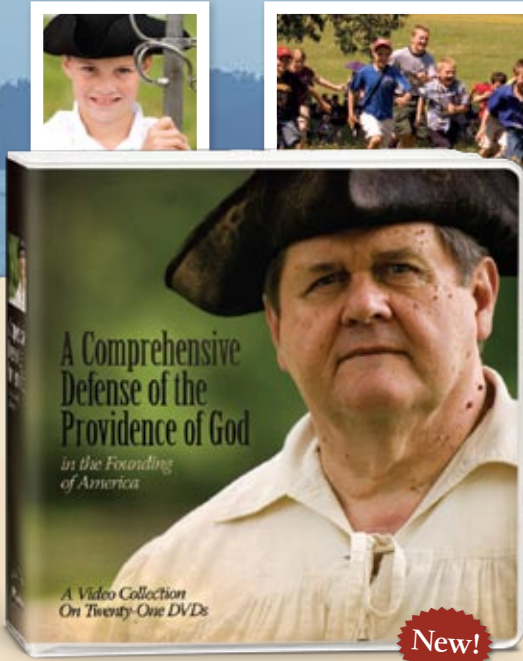

Republishing the Ballantyne Christian Adventure Library fulfills a long-time dream for Vision Forum. We are so pleased to release the first ten books in our series of more than sixty volumes to be printed in the months and years ahead. We have produced each Ballantyne book with quality and care, offering Smythe-sewn hardbound books that will be enjoyed by generations of readers to come. We encourage you to make "Ballantyne the Brave" your own family's faithful friend and adventure guide, confident that the man who broke tens of thousands of boys' hearts with his passing will inspire yours with his literary return. Titles and prices on opposite page. Illustrated. Hardback.

"R. M. Ballantyne was born into Edinburgh's great 19th century publishing elite. His family firm published both Walter Scott and Thomas Chalmers. No wonder he knew how to spin a classic yarn! His prodigious output of nearly a hundred adventure stories was the natural fruit of the rich Scottish legacy of unbridled courage, undaunted chivalry, literary excellence, Christian virtue, and global vision. I am so grateful that Vision Forum has once again made these rip-roaring tales available. May they inspire the next generation to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with the Lord."

THE JAMESTOWN QUADRICENTENNIAL AUDIO COLLECTION

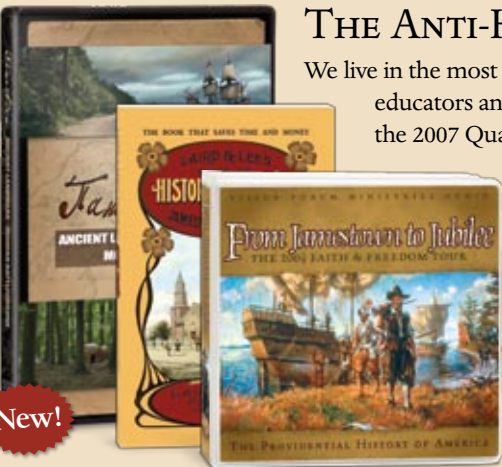

A Thirty-Two Compact Disc Audio Collection

The Jamestown Quadricentennial: A Celebration of Our Providential History was the most significant and far-reaching event in the history of Vision Forum Ministries. Designed to be a distinctively Christian birthday party which took the best of the great traditions of centennial celebrations past, the event exceeded all of our expectations for its beauty and power as a testimony of the mighty hand of God in history. Over the course of the week, celebrants dedicated a historic monument, attended more than twenty-five lectures and reenactments. They watched “The Marriage of Pocahontas,” met the grandson of the tenth President of the United States, and dialogued with Princess Pocahontas. Celebrants listened to the blast of the cannons and the sound of fife and drum. But more than anything else, the families in attendance were able to take a week of their lives to stop, rejoice, and give thanks to the Lord for his many mercies in the life of our nation. Now you can do the same. Whether you were at Jamestown, or want to share in the experience, every family should have these messages as a reminder for their children. THE ANTI-HISTORICAL REVISIONISM HOME SCHOOL KIT

We live in the most historically illiterate American generation in history. It does not help that educators and elites are constantly communicating contempt for our Christian origins. For the 2007 Quadricentennial, revisionist historians were once again hard at work teaching school-children hatred for the providential interpretation of our history. Vision Forum opposes this revisionistic spirit, and recommends the Anti-Historical Revisionism Home School Kit as one tool designed to do just this. With audio from past Jamestown Faith & Freedom History Tours and the guide book to the Centennial celebrations, you can enjoy a unique, personal, history tour into the past. A Providential History of Warfare Technology

SABERS, SPEARS, & CATAPULTS

By William Potter

New!

God, in His sovereignty, has ordained that war be a constant reality in history. The study of war reveals the providential means God has used to decide the courses of men and nations, bringing judgment to one people, and raising up salvation for another. The history of warriors and their weapons has fascinated men for centuries and the Bible itself recounts thrilling battles and the weapons that were wielded in victory and defeat. God Himself uses military hardware in reality and in metaphor, especially mentioning the sword.

There are two sets of lectures in this series. The first studies weapons and warfare in the Old Testament era. This set also investigates the way of war of ancient Israel and civilizations found in the centuries before the New Testament. The second set covers a trilogy of battles that occurred during three different centuries within a few miles of each other along the border of France and Belgium: the battle of Agincourt in 1415, Waterloo in 1815, and the Somme in 1916. Examined for each conflict are the weapons technology of the period and the warriors at the sharp end of battle. 4 Compact Discs. Approx. 4 hrs. 67432 | $25

THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

THE LEAGUE OF GRATEFUL SONS

A Feature Film from
Douglas W. Phillips

What is the godly legacy of the fathers of World War II? Their story has not been told—until now!

More than 406,000 American men died during the Second World War, leaving an estimated 183,000 children fatherless. Hundreds of thousands of other fathers did return from war, some who tragically never connected with their children. But within the ranks of the survivors and the heroic dead were a remarkable collection of men who made it a life mission to speak of the providences

Meet tough-as-nails Marine “Colonel” Bill Henderson. He survived thirty-six days of brutal fighting on Iwo Jima and, while in the midst of immoral wartime circumstances, maintained moral purity because of the influence of his manly Christian father. Meet P-51 Mustang flyboy Bill Brown. He was shot down over Japan, but survived to train generations to sing praises to God. Now in their eighties, these ancient warriors return to the black sand of Iwo Jima to disciple a new generation in the art of Christian manhood.

Joining them are sons whose fathers never returned—the Isacks brothers and “Johnny Boy” Butler—all heirs to a vast resource of fatherly wisdom penned from the battlefield.

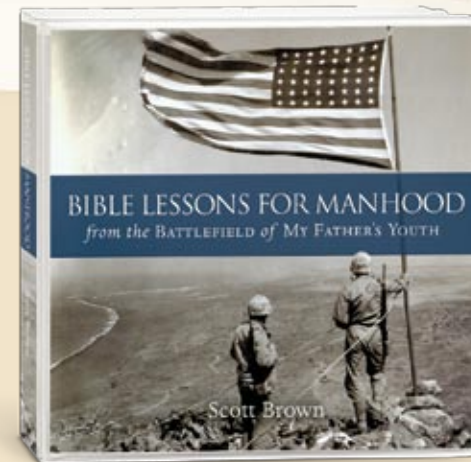

“As a leader, you’ve got to lead. . . . You don’t say, ‘go take Hill 32, boys.’ You say, ‘C’m on boys, we’re taking Hill 32.’”

“No, I did not fear death. My main concern was that I did not want to . . . disappoint my father. . . . You see, he was a Christian.”

—“COLONEL” BILL HENDERSON,
USMC, IWO JIMA

of God and the meaning of manhood to the boys who would fill their shoes. Through wartime letters and present-day pilgrimages to the bloody battlefields of their youth, the ancient warriors have spoken. Their thankful children rise to honor and surpass their legacy. They are “The League of Grateful Sons.”

Shot on location on Iwo Jima, Guam, Hawaii, and in Texas, and directed by veteran filmmaker Geoff Botkin, The League of Grateful Sons will leave you grateful for America’s heroic fathers and motivated to surpass their legacy. DVD. Approx. 75 mins. DVD67880 | $20 VHS67882 | $20

BIBLE LESSONS FOR MANHOOD FROM THE BATTLEFIELD OF MY FATHER’S YOUTH

New!

By Scott Brown

The apostle Paul exhorted Timothy to set an example for all young men to follow: “therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ” (II Tim. 2:3). Bible Lessons for Manhood from the Battlefield of My Father’s Youth is a discipleship tool for dads and their sons. Filled with biblical lessons of real-life manhood that arise from the World War II battle for Iwo Jima, these messages tell the story of fighter planes, amphibious assaults, foxholes, cave warfare, and flamethrowers—elements that helped forge one man’s mission of father-to-son discipleship.

Taking real battlefield scenarios, these talks show fathers specific areas that need to be covered during a son’s discipleship journey as “soldiers of the cross,” and provide practical advice for dads on how they can wisely encourage their sons to lead courageously, understand and embrace the gospel, handle friendships, devote oneself to the church, flee immorality, take on mighty challenges, trust in the sovereign hand of God, handle trials, and not waste their youth. It’s about discipling sons to be truly great boys, and someday men, by using real-life, action-packed examples to explain what God has said in Scripture. Best to use as a joint father and son devotional. 6 Compact Discs. Approx. 5 hrs. 18833 | $25

COMING IN ON A WING & A PRAYER

By Kelly J. Bradrick

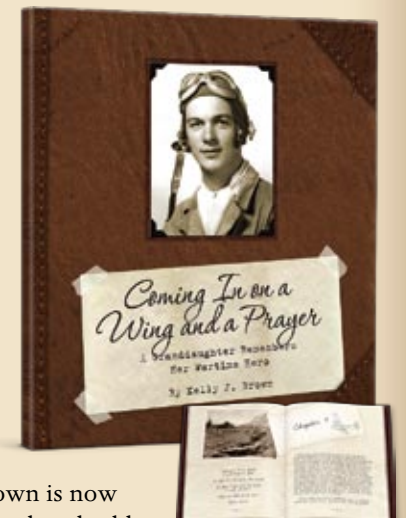

“We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.” (Psalm 44:1)

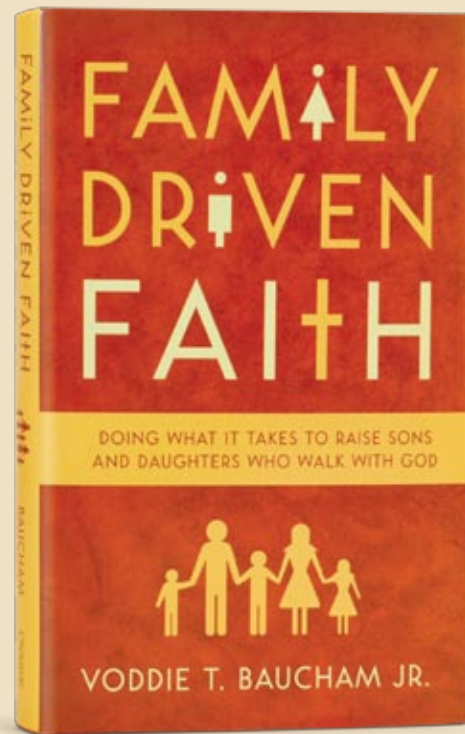

He was only five years old when a local barnstormer offered to take young Bill Brown for a flight in a biplane in exchange for one of his mother’s home-cooked meals. That day birthed a lifelong fascination with aviation. As a young man, he grew up near the home of the man who would become the most famous pilot of the Second World War—Jimmy Doolittle of the “Doolittle Raiders.” By twenty-one, Brown had earned his own wings and found himself as a P-51 Mustang fighter pilot performing daring raids from battlefields like Iwo Jima. Ultimately he was shot down during a combat mission over Japan, but would live to become a dynamic servant of the Cross. Featured in the film, The League of Grateful Sons, Bill Brown is now the subject of a thrilling story of combat, faith, and fatherhood told through the eyes of granddaughter Kelly Bradrick. In Coming In on a Wing and a Prayer, a beautiful, pictorially rich book, Kelly recounts the life of her flyboy grandfather as a letter to generations yet to be born. One of the most encouraging books you will read this year. Hardback. 55 pgs. 55860 | $17

Parents—Change the World!

FAMILY DRIVEN FAITH

By Voddie T. Baucham, Jr.

More teens are turning away from the faith than ever before—yet God’s Word provides the answer. In Family Driven Faith, Dr. Voddie Baucham identifies timeless precepts and principles from Scripture for raising our sons and daughters to stand firm in a post-Christian society. God has not left parents alone in raising godly children, but has given us valuable and timeless precepts in His Word for successful training, if parents will only take the time to study and learn from the Heavenly Father. Drawing from Deuteronomy 6 and other passages, Dr. Baucham explains the power of family-centered discipleship, demonstrating how the day-to-day training of our children can lay the groundwork for multi-generational faithfulness. Family Evangelism

THE CENTRALITY OF THE HOME IN EVANGELISM AND DISCIPLESHIP

By Voddie T. Baucham, Jr.

Current statistics show we are losing between 75% and 88% of professing Christian young people by the end of their first year of college. The response of the church at large has been to emphasize “relevant” and “hip” family-fragmenting youth ministries. But is this the right response? Dr. Baucham says no.

In this powerful message, Dr. Baucham presents the case that the home must be the central training ground for evangelism and discipleship. He charges parents to understand their role as shepherds by embracing the joy of their biblical duties and responsibilities.

His exposition of Scripture is clear and his arguments unassailable. Compact Disc. 58 mins.

Holiness for Boys

THOUGHTS FOR YOUNG MEN

By J.C. Ryle, Foreword by Douglas W. Phillips

There are four great temptations that plague most young men: sloth, lust, love of pleasure, and peer pressure. J.C. Ryle, the last of the great Puritans, tackles each of these subjects with a tenderness and tact which is unsurpassed. If it was difficult to be a young man in the days of the nineteenth century when Ryle first penned Thoughts for Young Men, it is all the more difficult to be a young man in the twenty-first century world of image-overload, radical individualism, and rampant sensuality. I was first introduced to Ryle about twenty years ago, and he remains my favorite teacher on personal holiness. We read this book over and over again to the whole family. Rediscovering the Family Altar

A CHURCH IN THE HOUSE

Restoring Daily Worship to the Christian Household

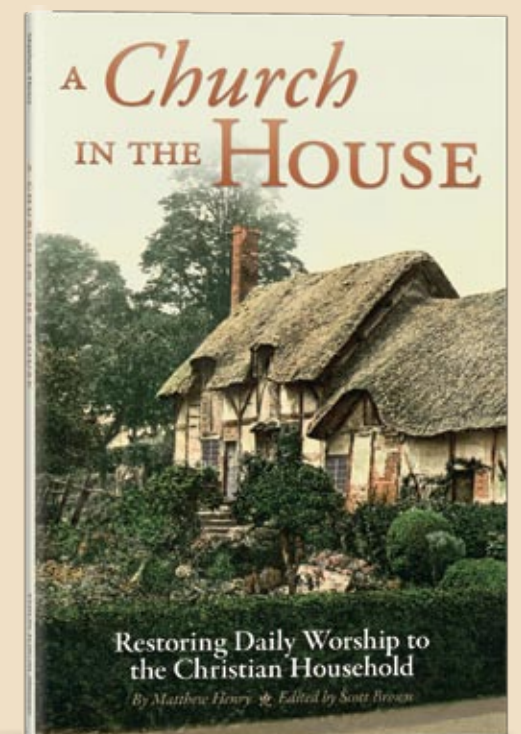

By Matthew Henry, Edited by Scott Brown

New!

Matthew Henry is known worldwide in our time as the author of his famous commentary on the Scriptures. But far less known in our day is the fact that Henry was an emblem of faithful fatherhood during his lifetime. Henry took his duties as a father seriously—and it showed. One observer noted that the Henry household was like unto the “gates of heaven” where he and his wife governed all family life by the Word of God.

As an English non-conformist pastor, Henry carried his passion for family discipleship into the pulpit. On April 16, 1704, he preached an abundantly practical sermon entitled, “A Church in the House, A Sermon Concerning Family-Religion,” as an encouragement to fathers to develop the spiritual life of their families in their homes. Henry exhorted that “every house should be a little church.” His point was not that the home should replace the church, but that the home should become a fountain of blessing for both the local church and the community at large.

Our Fathers’ Fathers

THE ROLE OF GRANDFATHERS IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

By Douglas W. Phillips

Did you know that the Bible has more to say about grandfathers than even fathers? But when was the last time you heard any teaching on the biblical role of grandfathers? The truth is this: rather than retiring from responsibility, “spending their children’s inheritance,” or being relegated to live their final days in solitude, the Bible pictures a world in which the greatest spiritual contributions in a man’s life come when he achieves the status of grandfather. Doug Phillips addresses with boldness and beauty the phenomenal vision of biblical grandfathering. Whether you are a grandfather, know one, or will someday be one, this recording is important for your listening library. Compact Disc. 60 mins. 59469 | $10

A Million-Mile Journey of Family Discipleship, Home Education, and Gospel Evangelism

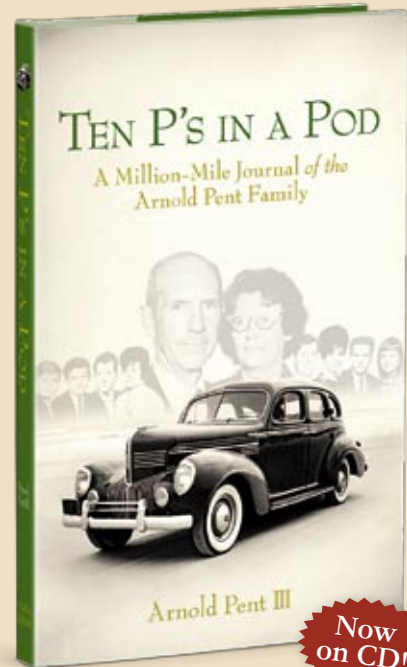

TEN P'S IN A POD

By Arnold Pent III

Future historians may look back on the Arnold Pent family and describe them as the “first modern home school family.” Before there were any state home schooling organizations, Mr. Pent declared his independence from government education and his dependence on Christ in the training of his children. No one told him to do this. He simply read the Bible and determined to obey God—regardless of the outcome. Like all great visionary leaders, Mr. Pent was a man with many wonderful directives for his family. The world would probably describe these initiatives as eccentricities, but they were not; he discovered something that all fathers would be well advised to consider: The most God-blessed expressions of biblical fatherhood are cultivated by taking the path less traveled.

Over the years, readers have been attracted to the endearing stories of family life found in such classics as Kathryn Forbes’ Mama’s Bank Account, Clarence Day’s Life with Father, and Frank Gilbreth’s Cheaper by the Dozen. The beauty of this book is that it combines the best elements of those classics, but with an uncompromising Gospel message. After four years in print, Ten P’s in a Pod remains a Vision Forum best-seller.

“Before seatbelt laws and car seats, before the suburban fad and the rise of the fifteen-passenger van, the ten-person Pent family was driving an interesting collection of automobiles one million miles around and around and around the country, preaching about the saving love of Jesus and the importance of the Bible in daily life.”

A Biblical Blueprint for a Happy Home

HOME-MAKING

By J.R. Miller

Don't let the title fool you. This is not just a book for women who keep home. Home-Making is an uncompromising vision statement for the domestic bliss and cultural dominion of the Christian family. The message of Home-Making is powerful: "Sisters, Brothers, Husbands, Wives—home life is meant to be beautiful, ennobling, and victorious!" God intends for each person, from parent to child, to play a role in family life, the ultimate goal of which is the transformation of the individual, the home, and the society for the glory of God.

Miller writes truth that we need to hear, but are usually afraid to say. He carefully addresses each member of the family, managing to find the perfect balance between inspiration and exhortation. My wife writes, "I was deeply moved as I read the beautiful descriptions of biblical family relationships." Hardback. 264 pgs. 34801 | $20

Why and How to Honor Your Mother

MOTHER

By Kathleen Norris

Edited by Jennie Chancey

This is a difficult age in which to be a woman. The woman who aspires to raise children for the glory of God, to develop the ministry of the home, or to co-labor with her husband is deemed "old-fashioned" or "unfulfilled." The modern lure of independence and career has bewitched an entire generation to exchange the beauty of Christian womanhood for the temporary enticements of a society at war with the family.

Amidst this confusion, Kathleen Norris's Mother is a refreshing call to sanity. Mother is the fictional tale of a young lady who leaves home and repudiates family life in the hope of finding personal fulfillment through independence and a career. But God dramatically changes her heart as she realizes that wealth and position are illusory and that independence can enslave a young lady. She discovers that the greatest woman she has ever known is her mother, and now she longs for home and motherhood. Hardback. 200 pgs. 34898 | $20

Illustrated with winsome watercolor vignettes by Johannah Bluedorn, mothers and daughters alike will be encouraged in the wonder and beauty of godly femininity. Hardback. 227 pgs. 68538 | $20

"We need young women who cherish their purity and desire to honor their parents through chaste behavior, speech, and dress. We need girls of character who cultivate their minds and emotions to reflect God's design with joy, intelligence, and delight."

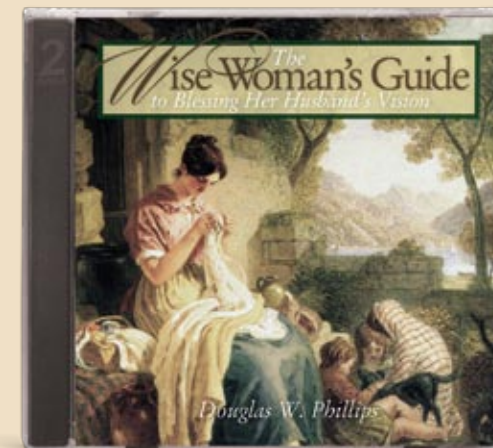

—FROM THE FOREWORD BY JENNIE CHANCEY

"Stacy McDonald has in this work equipped parents to be about the business of raising up rubies, or rather, that which is more precious still, our daughters. She is a faithful guide, for she is a godly example."

How to Help Your Husband

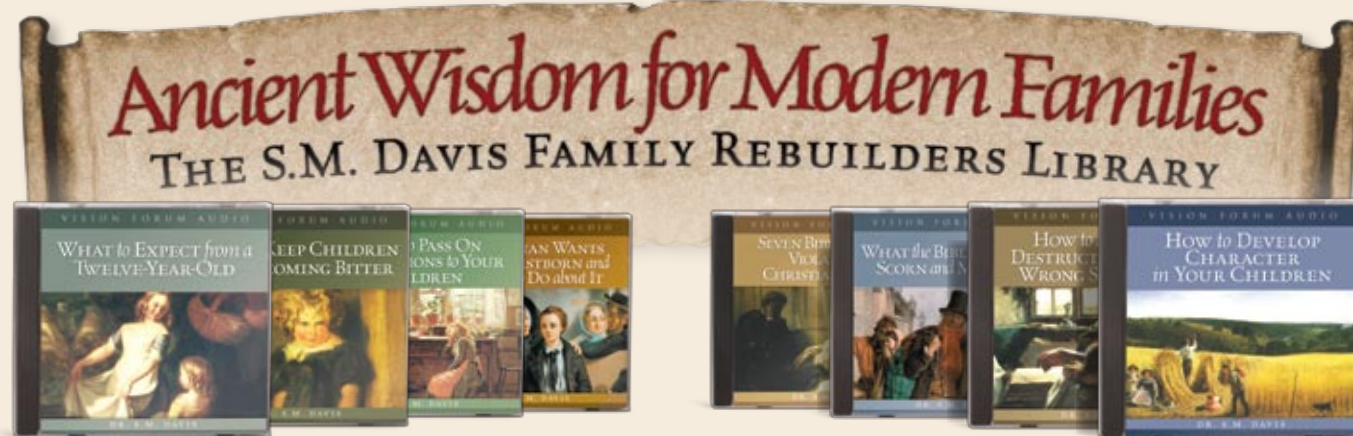

THE WISE WOMAN'S GUIDE TO BLESSING HER HUSBAND'S VISION

By Douglas W. Phillips

The Christian community is full of dear ladies discouraged because their husbands lack vision to lead the family with gusto. In some cases, the men are simply overwhelmed with present responsibilities. In other cases, they lack a biblical framework for household leadership. It certainly does not help when men have poor role models in their own lives, which is the case for a growing majority of husbands. For twelve years, Doug and Beall Phillips have spoken with hundreds who share these sentiments. But, too often, wives contribute to the problem through a wrong response. The great news is that the Bible anticipates this crisis of leadership in the home and provides direction for wives. Wise women will strive to bless their husbands' vision by embracing the specific affirmative and negative biblical commands given to them. Those who do so will become a sanctifying influence on their household, grow in spiritual maturity, and may become God's vehicle for their husband's spiritual revival. This series is meant to encourage both wives and husbands with the principles and the practicalities for men and women growing in family vision for the Lord. 2 Compact Discs. 103 mins. 68221 | $16

Strategic Siblings

THE INFLUENCE OF OLDER CHILDREN ON YOUNGER CHILDREN

By Dr. S.M. Davis

New!

Have you ever wondered why so many Christian families are losing their children to the world? Here is one reason: By failing to win, disciple, guide, and protect the eldest children, parents often find a multiplicity of sorrows and divisions within the home. On the other hand, wise parents who seek the help of the Lord and carefully shepherd their eldest children often enjoy blessed reinforcement and encouragement in the training of the younger children. In this practical look at the biblical principles of child mentorship, Dr. S.M. Davis draws from the Apostle John’s letter to Gaius to illustrate how the actions of older siblings greatly influence the paths of the younger. Compact Disc. Approx. 65 mins. 58785 | $10

Heart Surgery for Discontent Children

THE HEART OF ANGER

By Lou Priolo

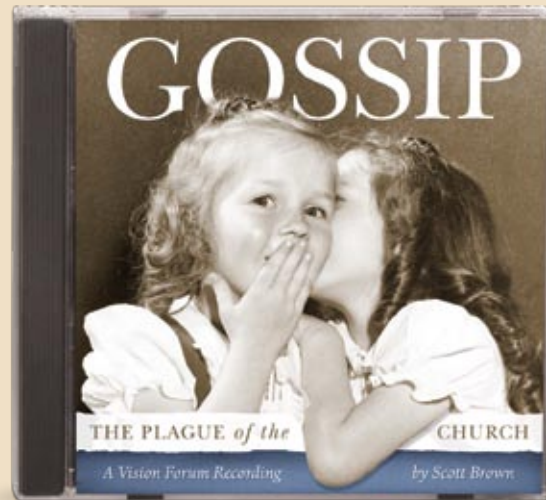

We live in an angry age, and too often we see this spirit reflected on the countenance of our children. Parents may unwittingly encourage this spirit by provoking their children to anger. Rebuilding the Church and the Home

GOSSIP: THE PLAGUE OF THE CHURCH

By Scott Brown

New!

“Don’t be the Devil’s bellows any longer to blow up the fires of strife. Leave off setting people by the ears. If you do not cut off a bit of your tongues, at least season them with the salt of grace. Praise God more and blame neighbors less. Any goose can cackle; any fly can find out a sore place; any empty barrel can give forth sound; any brier can tear a man’s flesh. No flies will go down your throat if you keep your mouth shut and no evil speaking will come up. Think much, but say little; be quick at work and slow at talk; and above all, ask the great Lord to set a watch over your lips.” —Charles Spurgeon

Gossip is the great destroyer of families, communities, and local churches. And the Bible has much to say about this form of verbal murder. Now, in this Scripture-saturated message, Scott Brown defines the problem of gossip, unveils the spiritual devastation it leaves behind, and explains the scriptural remedy and the blessings which accompany following God’s commands regarding the use of the tongue. Compact Disc. 46 mins. 58783 | $10

New!

In the history of Christianity, Sunday schools, youth groups, and children’s church are a relatively recent phenomena. All of these programs find their origin in well-intentioned, sometimes helpful, but often pragmatic approaches to discipleship. In this message, the evolution of the Sunday school movement is traced from its early days as a well-intentioned “Social Gospel” outreach to children without Christian parents, through its nineteenth century response to the feminization of Christianity, and ultimately to its various twentieth century manifestations—often as a spiritual band-aid for male abdication of responsibility within the home. Careful distinctions are drawn between age-segregated, peer-based discipleship models, with their origins in evolutionary social theory on the one hand, and discipleship models which find their origins in biblical principles of local, church-trained, family-based, parent-directed discipleship on the other hand. UNITING CHURCH AND FAMILY

A National Conference Promoting Family-Friendly Churches

In August 2002, more than five hundred churchmen—including pastors, elders, and deacons—gathered in St. Louis for a historic conference on a matter of pressing urgency: the relationship of the church to fatherhood and family. After more than a century of the devastating influence of feminism, government education, and mass marketing techniques, key segments of the evangelical church are experiencing a revival of interest in fatherhood and family. Sadly, some churches actually persecute families who want to worship as a family or who express concern over church youth groups. Often, the tragic results are nomadic families who flit from church to church or renegades who refuse to place themselves under the accountability of a local church. God requires His people to be under biblical local churches with biblical preaching, ordinances, and discipline. So how do we unite church and family? Join R.C. Sproul, Jr., Doug Phillips, John Thompson, and many others to examine this watershed issue. 10 Compact Discs. Over 10 hrs. 43799 | $45

HOSPITALITY NEW!

The individualism of our self-centered, fast-paced culture has pervaded our local churches, sapping them of the vitality of true Christian community and fellowship. In this message, Alexander Strauch presents the biblical case for hospitable Christians and explains its centrality and power in the life of the body of Christ. Compact Disc. 57 mins. 58789 | $10

DISCIPLINE NEW!

God has given the rod to the family, the sword to the state, and the keys to the church. Godly discipline is an act of love. No church can claim to be a biblical assembly if it rejects the doctrine and practice of discipline. Jeff Pollard addresses the necessity for and proper use of discipline. Compact Disc. 54 mins. 58787 | $10

SUFFER THE CHILDREN NEW!

The local church is not a gathering place for perfect people. It is an assembly of redeemed sinners, each of whom is a work in progress. Kevin Swanson shares that only when Christians learn to “suffer the children” will they experience maturity and the richness of God’s blessing. Compact Disc. 42 mins. 58777 | $10

BIBLICAL ELDERSHIP NEW!

In this two-part message, Alexander Strauch, author of Biblical Eldership, outlines the most important principles of biblical eldership. The message is critical for anyone who wants to raise up mature men who can bless the local church through their leadership. 2 Compact Discs. 120 mins. 58775 | $16

THE CENTRALITY OF THE HOME IN CHURCH EVANGELISM NEW!

Current statistics show we are losing between 75% and 88% of professing Christian young people by the end of the first year of college. The response of the church at large has been a decided focus on “relevant” and “hip,” family-fragmenting youth ministries. But is this the right response? Dr. Voddie Baucham says no. Find out why. Compact Disc. 58 mins. 58773 | $10

CHILDREN AND THE DOMINION MANDATE NEW!

The “Dominion Mandate” has been the subject of much controversy. In essence it is a call to take every thought, deed, and action captive to the Lordship of Christ. But does God still expect man to “be fruitful and multiply?” If so, how does this fit into the dominion mandate of Genesis? Join William Einwechter as he makes practical application for twenty-first century Christians. Compact Disc. 58 mins. 58771 | $10

THE SPOTLESS BRIDE

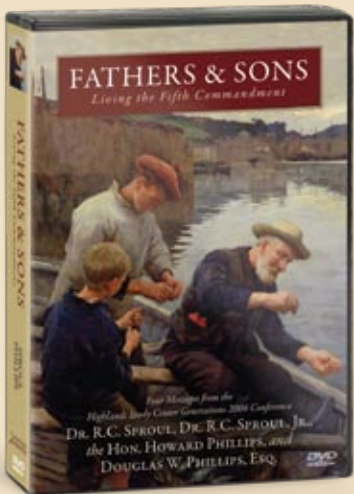

You cannot understand the Church if you cannot picture the glory of Christian marriage. Like a bride for her groom, the Church is to be holy and spotless. But how does the bride of Christ remain pure in a pagan culture? In this controversial message, Doug Phillips challenges the adulterous behavior of the modern church and asserts the principle of holiness through cultural antithesis. The Master's Plan for Fathers

FATHERHOOD FROM A BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVE

By Scott Brown and Dan Horn

Scott Brown says that there are really only two ways you can go forward with fatherhood. You can either make it up as you go, or you can get your bearings as a dad from the Word of God. Most men want to be great fathers, but all the desire and emotion in this world is not enough to make him a good one. Fathers need a good road map, and the only road map that is reliable comes from Holy Scripture—the book filled with timeless wisdom that every father needs in order to lead his sons and daughters in the path of righteousness. The Master's Plan for Fathers is a great primer designed to get dads started in this process. This encouraging and thought-provoking series has been designed to help men understand fatherhood from a biblical perspective. Sections of Old Testament Scripture which deal with men and fatherhood are explained through clear, biblical exposition. 7 Compact Discs. Approx. 6 hrs. 43752 | $35

Who Controls the Womb?

BE FRUITFUL AND MULTIPLY

What the Bible Says about Having Children

By Nancy Campbell, Foreword by Douglas W. Phillips

Can you imagine attending a wedding where the family of the bride prayed for her to have vast legions of children who would grow up to have dominion in the land for the glory of God? This was precisely the blessing offered by the sisters of Rebekah upon her marriage to Isaac. These sentiments beautifully harmonize with Scripture after Scripture which extol the virtue of trusting the Lord to control the womb. For six thousand years, believers viewed children as a blessing and reward of the Lord greatly to be desired. It was widely accepted that those who cut off their seed usually did so in violation of the express commands of God. Only in the last seventy-five years has child prevention become acceptable in the Church. Perhaps more than any other philosophical shift in the history of the Church, the modern, anti-child philosophy has changed the way we view the role of fathers, mothers, family life, and multi-generational faithfulness. But genuine questions persist: Does the Bible address the question of child prevention? Is cutting off the godly seed ever an act of "good stewardship?" What about economic considerations? What about "natural" family planning? Be Fruitful and Multiply answers these questions and makes the case that Christians should do more than just "trust God" for children. We should cry out to the Lord to bless the fruit of the womb. Paperback. 228 pgs. 84325 | $15

"Nancy Campbell challenges believers to view child-bearing as an important means of glorifying God and furthering His Kingdom in this world."

MANLINESS

By Douglas W. Phillips

The biblical doctrine of manliness has a central role in Christendom. The twentieth century, with its emphasis on feminism, a co-ed military, and mothers leaving the home for the workforce, wreaked havoc on this doctrine. Doug Phillips explains that manly men are men of duty. They possess a faith that overcomes fear and they sacrifice for the weak. Learn from Scripture, Teddy Roosevelt, Churchill, and others. BELOVED BRIDE: THE LETTERS OF STONEWALL JACKSON TO HIS WIFE

By Bill Potter, Foreword by Stephen Lang

He called her "my beloved esposa" because Anna was his dearest love on this earth. Ironically, while the great military exploits of General Stonewall Jackson are studied in military schools the world over, and his iron will and stern self-discipline have become legendary, little is said about his remarkable marriage. The real Thomas J. Jackson was a humble Christian and loving husband and father. The tender and instructive letters he wrote to his wife Anna are a model of godly leadership and covenantal faithfulness. From their courtship to their final days together, trace the story of this remarkable couple through the letters of General Jackson to his bride. The Historical Adventures of G.A. HENTY

"My husband discovered G.A. Henty books when our children were young, and he read them to our son each night before bedtime.... [O]ur son read them to his sons, and one of those sons has another son who will hear them, also. God bless Vision Forum!"
—MRS. AMELANG

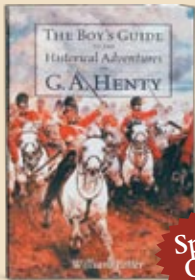

WHEN YOUR SON picks up a G.A. Henty historical novel, he will travel back in time to some of the greatest events in the history of the world. He will rejoice with an ancient barbarian who receives Christ, ride with Lee through the battlefields of Virginia, travel with Conquistadors to distant lands, and watch the fall of the Temple of Jerusalem. Most importantly, he will see the world through the lens of predominately biblical Christianity, learning that men are to live a life of duty and sacrifice, and that God requires even little boys to act with nobility.

Once upon a time, these books could be found on the shelves of many great leaders, including Nobel Prize winners, historians, prime ministers, generals, and preachers. We are pleased to present our lineup of Henty books. May these books inspire the next generation of American boys to be men of honor, courage, and steadfast faith in Christ.

"To be a true hero you must be a true Christian. To sum up then, heroism is largely based on two qualities—truthfulness and unselfishness, a readiness to put one's own pleasure aside for that of others, to be courteous to all, kind to those younger than yourself, helpful to your parents, even if helpfulness demands some slight sacrifice of your own pleasure. . . . You must remember that these two qualities are the sign of Christian heroism."

Nineteenth-Century Metal Toy Soldiers are Back!

The Henty Heroes Collection—Hand-Casted, Hand-Painted, Napoleonic-Era Soldiers Made by Four Boys Who Love G.A. Henty

What do Winston Churchill, Theodore Roosevelt, and a generation of early twentieth century Western leaders have in common? Answer: They played with toy soldiers—usually of the Napoleonic Era vintage. These soldiers were neither plastic, nor made in China. They were solid metal. And they were made to endure the life of a toy soldier engaged in simulated military battle. This sometimes included firecracker explosions and small pyrotechnic experiments, as well as domino-like knock-downs and other micro-martial techniques employed by boys engaged in the ancient art of toy soldier play. Many of these boys were inspired to build their play around the stories of great military commanders, as told by writers like G.A. Henty.

Now a Vision Forum team of young Henty aficionados want to share their love for the great author, as well as the tradition of the metal toy soldiers with their Henty Heroes Collection—sets of hand-casted, hand-painted, metal, limited edition British 1st Foot and French Imperial Guards (which collided in 1815 at the epic battle of Waterloo). Soldiers are available painted and unpainted. Unpainted sets contain a captain, drummer, flag officer, two foot soldiers, and painting instructions.

THE LIFE AND CAMPAIGNS OF STONEWALL JACKSON

By Robert Lewis Dabney

Stonewall Jackson—his very name evokes the image of the solid, immovable Confederate General whose sobriquet, earned at the Battle of First Manassas, no longer requires quotation marks. His pious Christian character, unwavering commitment to duty, and role as affectionate husband—as well as his magnificent service to Virginia—were carefully recorded by his close friend, Robert Lewis Dabney. The battle accounts resonate with the first-hand knowledge of a man who has seen the face of battle, as Major Dabney often did while serving as General Jackson's adjutant in the Valley Campaign. His account of military life in the field with Jackson provides poignant insight into the character of the General as they discuss theology and military history, pray together, and gallop to the sound of the guns. Jackson's theology was supremely orthodox, rooted in the biblical tradition of Knox, Calvin, and Edwards. In a day bereft of true heroes, Stonewall shows us how a Christian soldier should live and die. Includes a free booklet of Robert Lewis Dabney quotes. Hardback. 742 pgs. 43252 | $25

CHRIST IN THE CAMP

By J. William Jones

"I can only say that I am a poor sinner, trusting in Christ alone for salvation."

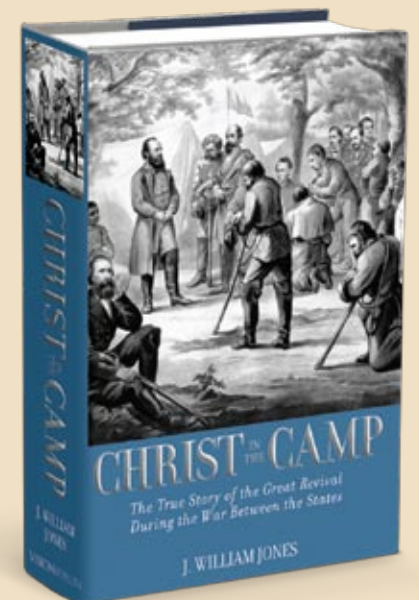

—General Robert E. Lee, 1864

"We have preaching or prayer-meetings almost every day, and the attendance is large . . . all seem approachable on the subject of religion."

—Chaplain J.C. Hiden, Charlottesville Hospital

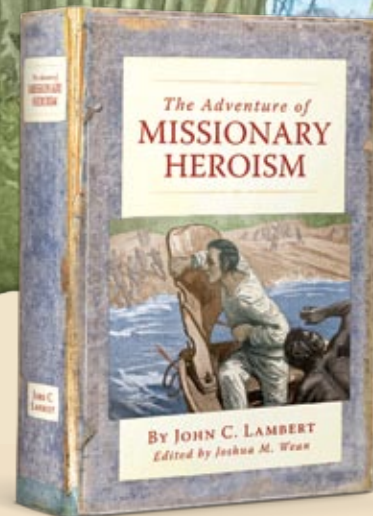

In the midst of the titanic struggle of the American War Between the States, a spiritual war for the souls of men was waged with equal vigor. Between 1861 and 1865, many thousands of soldiers professed Christ as their Savior and Lord, and many more were renewed in their commitment to serve God in camp and battlefield.

Herein are recorded stories of the heroism of chaplains who stood in the line of battle to minister to the fallen and to work at the bedside of fatally ill comrades, some of whom were themselves counted among the slain. It tells of worship services in camps attended by ten, a hundred, or a thousand men gathered to hear the Word of God expounded. Here, too, we read of the Christian generals who supported the many facets of gospel work: Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, Jeb Stuart, and others. Hardback. 624 pgs. 34408 | $25

A Son's Love and Devotion to His Father that Resulted in the Conversion of Thousands

MISSIONARY PATRIARCH: THE TRUE STORY OF JOHN G. PATON, EVANGELIST AMONG THE SOUTH SEA CANNIBALS

This is the greatest missionary story you will ever read. Period. But it is much more than a missionary story. The autobiography of John G. Paton is a true-to-life primer on multi-generational faithfulness. Perhaps more than any other autobiography, this magnificent volume will provide a vivid description of the impact of biblical fatherhood on a son, and the reason why the greatest men are men who learn to honor their fathers and mothers. When I share this message before an audience, I usually begin by quoting at length an autobiographical account, penned by John G. Paton in the nineteenth century, describing how his father's love and training prepared him to endure bitter hardship, to persevere against unspeakably difficult circumstances, and to resist sin. We have republished it because it contains the finest testimony of love and devotion between a father and son that I have ever read outside the Scriptures as John G. Paton speaks to us from the past with a healthy antidote to the challenges of our day. Hardback. 524 pgs. 55442 | $24

The True Story of Parents Who Risked All for Their Children and Produced a Great Nation

OF PLYMOUTH PLANTATION

By Governor William Bradford

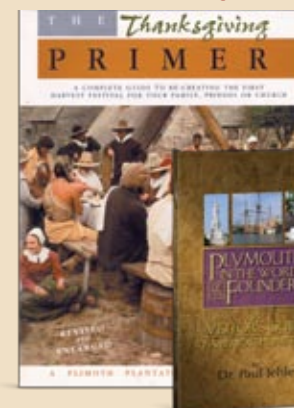

Few people realize that America was founded because a devout band of non-conformist Christians lived and breathed the covenant promises of Jesus Christ. Though the Pilgrims left England because of religious persecution, they actually left Holland to protect their children from ungodly influences. These parents risked everything to protect their young. Bradford boldly proclaimed that these families were willing to sacrifice their lives, if necessary, “even though they [the Pilgrims] be but stepping stones” for future generations of Christians they would never meet. Of Plymouth Plantation

Perfect for Thanksgiving!

is one of the five most inspirational books I have ever read. It is the true story of fifty “average” people who changed the world because they shared a multi-generational vision. For almost two decades, it has been a cherished family tradition to read this book aloud each Thanksgiving. My father, the family patriarch, gathers his many children and grandchildren around the table and reads for several hours the story of Bradford and the heroic Pilgrims. We cannot truly appreciate the significance of Thanksgiving if we do not know the real story. My personal library consists of thousands of volumes—this is one of my most treasured. Your child should not be considered fully educated before reading Of Plymouth Plantation. Hardback. 353 pgs. 84149 | $24

A Godly Thanksgiving

This is the ultimate overview of how to enjoy an authentic Pilgrim Thanksgiving in your own home. The Thanksgiving make your Thanksgiving wonderful. Beall and I use this guide extensively when planning our own celebrations whether at home, or when we are in Plymouth. These simple books will help you understand and defend the Pilgrim Fathers, while enjoying a truly special Thanksgiving.

The Patriotic Textbook Series

“One of the Ten Most Important Books in a Christian’s Library”

NOAH WEBSTER’S 1828 DICTIONARY

When Noah Webster first published this book, he understood that whoever defined the words of a culture would capture that culture. So he gave the American people a dictionary in which words have meaning in terms of their relationship to Jesus Christ. In fact, this is the only comprehensive dictionary of the English language in print that seeks to communicate a distinctively biblical worldview, even to the point of using Scripture in the definitions.

This volume was produced during the years when the American home, church, and civil spheres were established upon a biblical worldview.

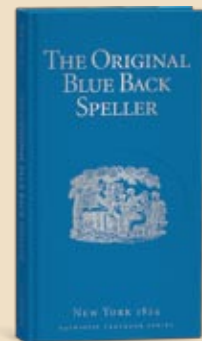

NOAH WEBSTER

Wise parents build worthy libraries to pass on to their children. Gigantic and oversized, this heavy book is perhaps second only to the Bible in terms of importance in your home. It is likely one of the ten most important books you will bring into your home for the education of your family. Now your children can join the ranks of those generations of American leaders who were weaned on Webster. Our book is sturdy and well bound with acid-free paper and a gold foil stamp. The Home School Curriculum of the Founding Fathers

THE ORIGINAL BLUE BACK SPELLER

The great American educator, Noah Webster, first published the Blue Back Speller in 1783. His goal was to provide a uniquely American, Christ-centered approach to training children. Little did he know the impact that this remarkable gem would have. Many of the Founding Fathers used this book to home school their children, and it is still our recommendation for you today. THE NEW-ENGLAND PRIMER

Many scholars agree that most, if not all, of the Founding Fathers were taught to read and write using this volume, which is unsurpassed to this day for its excellence in practical training and Christian worldview. MAKING WISE DECISIONS ABOUT COLLEGE AND LIFE AFTER HOME SCHOOL

The Return of the Bible Carried by Reformers and Pilgrim Fathers New!

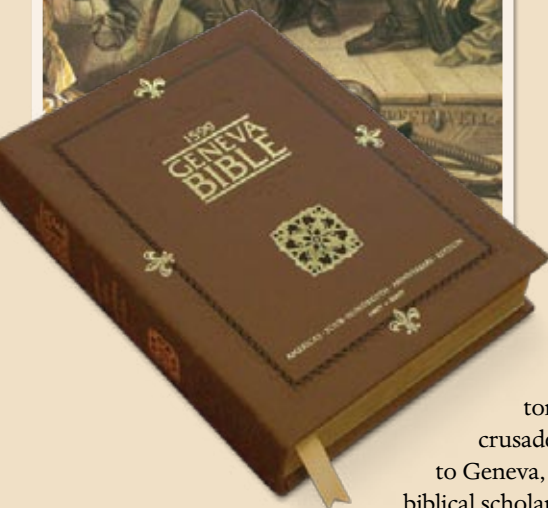

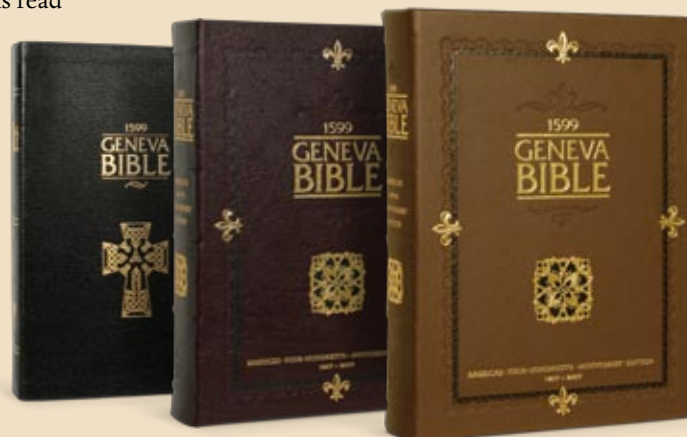

THE 1599 GENEVA BIBLE

In a very real sense, we as Americans owe much of our rich spiritual heritage to the Geneva Bible—the Scriptures carried by Plymouth Pilgrims and great reformers. Nearly forgotten today, this version of the Holy Scriptures—first translated into English in 1560—created the conditions for a Christian reformation of life and culture the likes of which the world had never seen.

“The 1599 Geneva Bible was used by God to spread the blessings of reformation, liberty, freedom, and productivity throughout the English-speaking world four centuries ago. May He now be pleased to use its republication to do the same thing in our own day.”

—DR. GEORGE GRANT, FOUNDER,
KING’S MEADOW STUDY CENTER

In 1553, Mary Tudor ascended the throne of England and set about to stamp out the Reformation, ordering the burning of all copies of the Bible in the English tongue. Bloody Mary’s vicious crusade drove scores of English reformers to Geneva, including some of the finest biblical scholars in history. Together, these men produced a new English Bible based on the original languages and not beholden to any king or prelate—the Geneva Bible.

The Geneva Bible is the Bible of “firsts”: It was the first Bible to qualify as a study Bible, providing readers with copious notes, cross-references, and commentary about the original manuscripts. It was the first Bible to be printed in a portable and affordable edition. And it was the first Bible to assign chapter and verse numbers.

The Geneva Bible inspired those who championed self-government and civic virtue. Its mighty influence was manifest in the lives of Knox, Cromwell, and Shakespeare. And it was the 1599 Geneva Bible that the Pilgrims read as they arrived in the New World in 1620, deriving principles from its pages that helped lay the foundation-stones of liberty in the western hemisphere.

Vision Forum is pleased to announce the re-release of the Geneva Bible in a superior quality genuine leather binding edition that features word-for-word accuracy with the 1599 Geneva Bible, original cross references, original study notes by Reformers, and modern spelling. Now you can own this lost treasure of Christendom. Black Leather Edition is 6½" x 9½". Family Editions are 8½" x 11".

THE ANNALS OF THE WORLD

What Augustine was for orthodoxy and Calvin was for theology, Archbishop James Ussher was for biblical historiography. No man in church history left a more indelible imprint on the thinking of Christians concerning the chronology of the ancient world than Ussher.

Updated from a seventeenth-century Latin manuscript to modern English, The Annals of the World contains the fascinating history of the ancients, from the Genesis creation to the destruction of the Jerusalem temple. Ussher traveled throughout Europe, gathering much information from the actual historical documents, many of which are now lost to the world.

The Annals of the World was so highly regarded for its accuracy that its timeline (pointing to an Earth of just over six thousand years) was included in the margins of many King James Version Bibles for three centuries. When the Church began to embrace evolutionary chronology, Ussher's notes were removed.

The Annals of the World is packaged in a beautiful display box,

Of Ussher, Dr. Francis Nigel Lee writes, "Raised in a Bible-believing Calvinistic environment, Dr. Ussher soaked himself in the Holy Scriptures without ceasing. He also read the Early Church Fathers—systematically, every day, for eighteen years. Head of Ireland's foremost Theological Faculty, Ussher was internationally the greatest Anglican antiquarian and theologian of his age—if not of all time." Hardback. 960 pgs. 44850 | $49

An Uncompromising Defense of the Normative, Historical, Grammatical Understanding of the Book of Beginnings

It is impossible to have a coherent, biblical worldview without an acceptance of the historical, grammatical understanding of the book of Genesis. Taken from conferences featuring Dr. John Morris of the Institute for Creation Research and Doug Phillips, the Back to Genesis audio set presents an uncompromising look at the Book of Beginnings and its influence on science, theology, and ethics. This album addresses the fact that dinosaurs lived side-by-side with man, the issue of starlight and time, and the fact that the geological column was primarily a result of the catastrophic events of Noah's day. The idea of scientific neutrality is eradicated, and the fact that all scientists bring religious bias to their work and data interpretation is clearly established. 9 Compact Discs. DEFENDING THE CHRISTIAN WORLDVIEW AGAINST ALL OPPOSITION, VOLS. 1 & 2

New!

When Mormons and Muslims, cynics and scoffers seek to subvert the Christian faith, how should we respond? Do you know how to give a defense of the Gospel? The need to do so will only become more apparent as our children grow up in a world where the Jesus Christ of the Bible is clouded with the universal "god" of all religions. Outlining the "presuppositional" approach to apologetics, Dr. Bahnsen shows how Christians can decimate false worldviews by forcing unbelievers to live consistently with their stated beliefs.

HOW TO THINK LIKE A CHRISTIAN

By Douglas W. Phillips

Most Christians think like humanists — not on purpose, mind you, but because they have not been trained to “take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ” or to look to the Scripture to form their worldview. Many Christians look to the Bible when it is convenient, but assume it is silent on most issues, rather than regarding it as “sufficient for all of faith and practice.” The results are devastating. Double-minded Christians dominate our churches. This timely lecture presents a much needed overview of what is needed to reform our minds. Compact Disc. 60 mins. 21533 | $10

OUTSIDE HOLLYWOOD

The Young Christian's Guide to Vocational Filmmaking

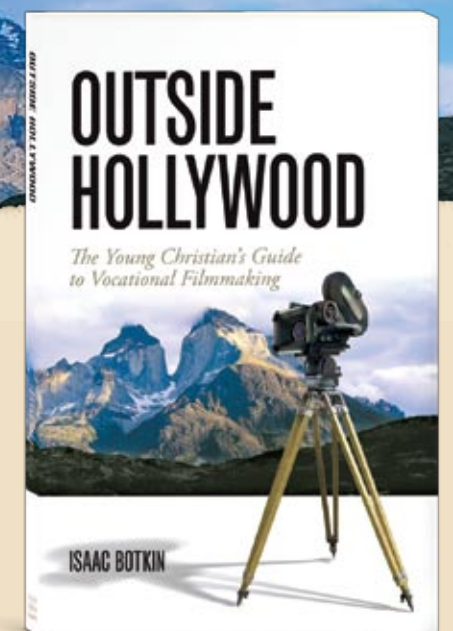

By Isaac Botkin

Like the Berlin Wall, the seemingly impenetrable colossus of Hollywood, with its enslaving influence on American culture, will someday come crashing down. Thankfully, inexpensive technologies, independent distribution methods, and a rising tide of innovative, Christ-loving visionaries are evidence of unprecedented opportunities for Christians who are willing to “take every [frame] captive” through a presuppositionally biblical approach to making films outside the Hollywood leviathan.

In this groundbreaking book, experienced cinematographer, writer, and animator Isaac Botkin prepares Christians for successful leadership as writers, directors, and producers. Botkin has worked as both a Hollywood outsider and an insider (with one of the most famous production houses in the world). He smashes the myth of methodological and cultural neutrality and offers a paradigm for developing a family-friendly approach to this important field of cultural influence. Introduction to Christianity, Law, and Culture: A Video Curriculum

A Video Course on God, Government, Law, and Culture Designed to Supplement High School and Pre-Law Studies, Pastoral Ministry, and Legal Private Practice

Having grown up in and around politics for my entire life and practiced law in the defense of home school freedoms and parental rights, it is my observation that there are four key problems that undermine the ability of Christians to influence the society in which they live: lack of confidence in the Word of God as the sufficient guide for law, ethics, and policy; ignorance of the biblical foundation for our common law; an ungodly dependence on pragmatic, rather than principled, methodologies; and failure to practice living out godly principles of self-government in our own homes. The Witherspoon School was founded to specifically address each of these issues.

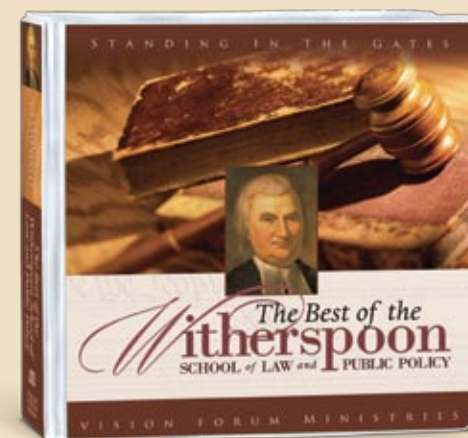

Over the last six years, the Witherspoon School of Law and Public Policy has graduated hundreds of students, including home educators, law students, pastors, attorneys, judges, legislators, and many others who share a common vision to better understand the biblical foundations for law and public policy.

Recorded live from the 2005 Witherspoon School held in Luray, Virginia, here are thirteen messages on twelve DVDs. These lectures have been carefully selected to give high school and pre-law students a thorough introduction and crash course in American law and public policy from a biblical and historical perspective. Included are messages from Douglas Phillips, Esq., Chief Justice Roy Moore, Justice Tom Parker, Dr. Paul Jehle, Dr. John Eidsmoe, and William Einwechter. 12 DVDs. Over 15 hours of lectures. 27980 | $75

FEATURES ON THE DVD:

- Christianity and the Common Law
- Covenantal Approach to Jurisdictions
- Christianity and the Constitution
- The Continuing Relevance of the Law of God
- The Race for the Alabama Supreme Court
- Righteous Judicial Decisions
- The Biblical and Historical Background for the Law of Nations
- The Law of Nations and the Constitution
- The Law of Nations and American History
- Biblical Law, Ethics, and Public Policy for Lawyers

A Project of The Vision Forum, Inc.®

What a privilege to be the father of four precious daughters and husband to the greatest wife in the world. My constant prayer is that the Lord will continue to affirm them as women of God. This same prayer is the heart of our mission at Vision Forum. Since our founding in 1998, Vision Forum has been committed to the restoration of the Christian family. Our book catalog, our All-American Boy's Adventure Catalog, and the Beautiful Girlhood Collection are all designed to tackle different aspects of the cultural battle for the family.

We aspire, by the grace of God, to encourage the rebuilding of a culture of virtuous womanhood. In a world that frowns on femininity, that minimizes motherhood, and that belittles the beauty of being a true woman of God, we dare to believe that the biblical vision for girlhood is a glorious vision. It is, in fact, a beautiful vision. It is a vision for purity and contentment, for faith and fortitude, for enthusiasm and industry, for heritage and home, and for joy and friendship. It is a vision so bright and so wonderful that it must be boldly proclaimed. We are here to proclaim it. Amid a culture brimming with mixed messages, shallow and self-serving ideals, and depraved "role-models," may you and your precious daughters find the following pages to be a refreshing and edifying oasis of innocence.

Girlhood is a very brief season in the life of a young lady. Nurture it, protect it, and by God's grace, fill it with the principles and tools needed to make it truly beautiful.

Douglas W. Phillips

DOUGLAS W. PHILLIPS, ESQ., PRESIDENT

Beautiful Girlhood is...

Faith & Fortitude

The spirit of beautiful girlhood is alive in the girl who, with courage and fortitude, perseveres through the many challenges of life. She realizes that "faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen," and consequently, strives for the principled course of action.

Purity & Contentment

To be pure in body, mind, and spirit is more precious than all the promises the world offers. Young ladies who experience a beautiful girlhood guard their hearts against anything that would rob them of purity and are content to wait upon the Lord and trust the leadership of Mom and Dad.

Femininity & Grace

The truly beautiful girl is one who radiates that inner grace which only comes from the confidence in being a woman of God. She enjoys dressing like a lady and being about the business of women. Because of this, others think of her with respect. Her very comportment communicates a gentle, gracious spirit.

Enthusiasm & Industry

Proverbs tells us that a virtuous woman "works with her hands with delight," and "does not eat the bread of idleness." The truly beautiful girl is one who sees her life as a mission of service. What others view as a burden, she views as a blessing and opportunity.

Home & Hospitality

One of the defining qualities of beautiful girlhood is a love for home and hospitality. A young girl watches her mother and looks forward to the day when she, too, will have a family. While other girls are driven by wanderlust, the hospitable girl finds true contentment at home.

Joy & Friendship

The woman of God is joyful and seeks companionship with those who share the same vision. For the daughter who has embraced the beauty of Christian girlhood, the richest friendships begin within her family, where she learns to love and honor, and first learns the joy of belonging to another.

When a girl plays with a doll...

...she is preparing to be a mommy someday. Her first role model is her own mother, and her first opportunity at role-playing is with her dolls. One of the sweetest aspects of being a mother is seeing my daughters imitate me as they play together with their dolls. With this in mind, we offer four original 18" dolls and a 15" baby doll from the Beautiful Girlhood Collection for your girls to cherish for years to come and then pass on to future daughters. Liberty, Evangeline, Fidelia, Abigail, and our new Baby Doll are made by Engel Doll Company, a premier European doll-maker which has made quality dolls since 1896. Exquisitely crafted, our 18" dolls have rooted hair for easier brushing and styling, as well as articulate features enabling them to move about more freely. Each of these sweet little ladies wears a distinct, feminine gingham dress complete with bloomers, white socks, and white leather shoes. Your little girls can relive history when they dress their dolls in our specially designed, Vision Forum exclusive, historical costumes. Dress them up to brave the voyage to New England as Priscilla Mullins, help Lewis and Clark find the Northwest Passage as Sacagawea, serve tea at the White House as Dolley Madison, stroll the deck of the Titanic as Nan Harper, dwell as a princess in a stately castle, demonstrate grace as a lovely southern lady, or climb the Alps as Maria von Trapp. True "little girl" dolls are rare in our age of fashion models and rushed childhood. Playing with Liberty, Evangeline, Fidelia, Abigail, and the Baby Doll will fill your daughter's childhood with memories to inspire her as she grows up to be a mommy.

Elsie Dinsmore VE

By Martha Finley

In the nineteenth century, millions of readers learned the meaning of godly womanhood from a little girl named Elsie. Her commitment to principle in the midst of adversity and her passionate love for Jesus Christ were the theme of twenty-eight volumes spanning her life. These original twelve volumes are presented just as a young lady would have found them one hundred years ago. Over the last several years, I have heard hundreds of reports from home schoolers and Christian families about the blessing these books have been in their lives. Elsie raises the standard of godly womanhood to new heights. Feminists will not be happy with Elsie. She is a God-honoring young woman who strives to solve problems while working through biblical authority structures. Hardback. F

FATHER & Daughter RETREAT

THE RETURN OF THE DAUGHTERS

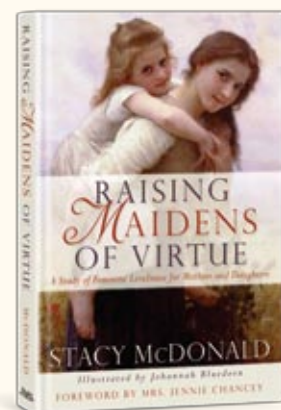

A Vision of Victory for the Single Young Women of the Twenty-First Century

For the first time in America's history, young ladies can expect to encounter a large gap between their years of basic training and the time when they marry... if they marry. Now Christian girls all throughout our country are seriously asking: What's a girl to do with her single years?

In this controversial documentary, Anna Sofia and Elizabeth Botkin take viewers into the homes of several young women who have dared to defy today's anti-family culture in pursuit of a biblical approach to daughterhood, using their in-between years to pioneer a new culture of strength and dignity...and to rebuild Western Civilization, starting with the culture of the home. A message of hope for the daughters of this generation. DVD. Aprox. 60 mins. F 67850 | $20

There is a sacred window of time in a boy's life when everything is possible:

he can rescue the damsel in distress, explore America with Lewis and Clark, or cross the Atlantic with the Pilgrims. Tragically, this window is shrinking because our modern culture is at war with courageous boyhood. Many have forgotten what it means to be a boy and dream the noble dreams of youth.

The time has come to rebuild a culture of courageous boyhood. The All-American Boy's Adventure Catalog is one step on that journey. Within these pages, you will find inspirational gifts and concepts to build the character of a boy. Every toy, tool, and book has been carefully selected and designed to inspire and motivate boys to dream big dreams for the glory of God. Boys can demonstrate faith in the face of battle with Sergeant York or build a treehouse with dad.

One of our goals is to demonstrate that the skills and experiences which historically made up the life of a boy were God-honoring vehicles for preparing him to be a man. He learns to explore because he is called to take dominion over the earth. He learns to emulate the lives of heroic Christians because he, too, is called to leadership.

Scripture is clear, "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Boys need vision. We humbly offer this catalog to you and the All-American boys in your family in the sincere hope that, together, we can rebuild a culture of courageous boyhood.

Doug Phillips

DOUGLAS W. PHILLIPS, ESQ., PRESIDENT

COURAGEOUS BOYHOOD IS...

Vision & Honor

"Where there is no vision, the people perish." The same is true of boys. Without a vision for manhood, boys will perish. But true vision is cultivated by honor. The courageous boy longs to honor his father and his mother and to not just succeed, but to succeed his godly parents.

Faith & Fortitude

The first principle of courageous Christian boyhood is faith. True courage is an outgrowth of confidence in the sovereign will of God, the reflection of an abiding faith in Christ. The spirit of courageous boyhood is alive in the boy who perseveres through the many challenges of life.

Dominion & Scholarship

The courageous boy is on a mission from God to take dominion over the earth. This is why he loves to learn, to investigate, to master disciplines, and to search out the mysteries of creation. His basic textbook for life is the Holy Scriptures.

Loyalty & Patriotism

Behind the courage of a truly faithful boy is gratitude for his family, his nation, and for the tender mercies of God in his life, motivating him to demonstrate an unflinching loyalty. Therefore, he has the heart of a son and the spirit of a patriot.

Virtue & Duty

It takes courage to be a virtuous boy in an impure world. But the truly courageous boy is steadfast in his commitment to remain pure in body, mind, and spirit. He will not be governed by undisciplined passions, or swayed by dangerous peer influence, and learns to stand alone and unmovable in his convictions.

Adventure & Evangelism

The courageous boy is one who longs for the thrill of adventure and eschews the life of ease and sloth. This desire is not a pagan quest for self-glory, but is in pursuit of a higher cause—the advancement of the Gospel and Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

In the pantheon of American Revolutionary war heroes, none played a greater role than General George Washington, commander-in-chief of the American forces. Washington demonstrated a level of honor, integrity, valor, and reliance on Providence that should be the inspiration for every boy preparing to be a leader. Washington will ever remain "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

COLONIAL JACKET AND BREECHES

America's liberty was won by men who sacrificed their personal time, liberty, and often material security to invest in a vision for the generations to come. CIVIL WAR SWORDS

We first discovered these swords during our 2003 Stonewall Jackson Tour of the Shenandoah Valley. There was something utterly compelling about the "shing" of the metal as it was drawn from the scabbard that beckoned to the fathers and sons across the room. Although we use these swords for mild, supervised jousts, they are replicas, not battle-worthy swords.

ADVENTURE & EXPLORATION

YOUNG WORLD EXPLORERS COLLECTION

During the fifteenth to seventeenth centuries, the world witnessed an explosion in global exploration, as bold adventurers such as Vasco da Gama, Captain James Cook, and Ferdinand Magellan bravely journeyed to uncharted corners of the earth in search of new trade routes and undiscovered lands. This eight-book series details the little-known exploits of some of the most important explorers from this exciting era. New!

The history of warriors and their weapons has fascinated men for centuries and the Bible itself recounts thrilling battles and the weapons that were wielded in victory and defeat. The first of two talks in this series examines weapons and warfare in the Old Testament era, illustrating the way of war in ancient Israel, and some of the other civilizations found in the centuries before the New Testament. The second talk looks at weapons and warfare in post-Bible times, including hand-held, thrown, and fired weapons, plus large engines of warfare. 4 Compact Discs. Approx. 4 hours. 6+ 67432 | $25

AT THE SOUND OF THE BUGLE VE

The sound of the bugle is one of the most thrilling in military history and was often heard in Stonewall Jackson's camp. It sounded morning, noon, and night, directing the troops for everything from "assembly" to "forward into battle." I wanted a bugle when I was a boy, but they were unauthentic and too expensive. This is so well designed that even my five-year-old is able to sound the battle cry. Similar models sell for twice as much. A favorite in the Vision Forum office. 6+ 42563 | $22

THE CLASSIC COONTAIL CAP

The coontail cap is the most important hat in the life of a young boy. It evokes images of heroes like Crockett and Boone, and symbolizes the All-American Boy. Like the frontiersmen who designed it, he hunts for his food and uses animal pelts for clothing. Camping in the woods or climbing a mountain is second nature to him, and hardships are to be expected, embraced, and overcome. He accepts others as they are, but lives his own life with conviction. I remember saving my allowance for months to buy a cheap reproduction, but now your boys can have the real thing at a great price. This lined cap is made of high-quality variegated rabbit skins and a raccoon tail. Pelt colors and tail lengths vary. Available in 5¾ (18" circumference) and 6¾ (21"). 3+ 21211 | $22

DIRTY OLD COINS ANCIENT ROMAN COIN KIT

Buried across Europe are treasure troves of ancient Roman coins. To hide their wealth, Roman citizens often buried their coins, but many died before recovering them, leaving the coins hidden for centuries. Now, with the help of modern-day treasure seekers, these coins are available to you. With this kit, you can discover, clean, preserve, and study your very own ancient coins.

As you remove centuries of dirt from these coins, you will be the first person to look upon them in more than fifteen hundred years. Over the course of the cleaning process, the true identity and value of your coins will slowly be revealed. They will captivate you as you wonder how they were lost and who may have last held them. Were they held by a third-century Christian or martyr?

The coins you will find in your kit parallel the history of the early Church. Will your coin carry the visage of a tyrant who persecuted Christians? Will it belong to the Christian Constantinian dynasty of the 300s? In any case, these will probably be the oldest man-made items you have ever held. Special return policy. THREE-MAN SLINGSHOT

My family and other members of the Vision Forum staff had an unforgettable experience with the Three-Man Slingshot. We were invited to the home of the Zes family where, in honor of Independence Day, the Zes brigade constructed life-size wooden "Redcoat" soldiers and masterfully painted them. Enter the Three-Man Slingshot. Using black-cloth cannon balls filled with old Y2K beans, our little militia spent hours "shelling" the British menace. Though it took a bit of practice and cooperation with the slingshot, we were soon knocking down the wooden soldiers that had invaded the Zes estate. Our Three-Man Slingshot is a humdinger. SERGEANT YORK AND THE GREAT WAR

One casualty report from a battle in Europe in 1918 stunned the world: at least 28 enemy soldiers killed, unknown wounded, 132 prisoners, and 35 machine guns captured — a toll exacted by one Tennessee doughboy, Sgt. Alvin C. York, a feat which won him the Congressional Medal of Honor. He spent the rest of his life delivering his unflinching Christian testimony before kings, presidents, and all who would listen. People wanted to know all about the shy, quiet, Christian soldier who "captured the whole German army." Sergeant York was a man with such a simple, unflappable, child-like faith that he trusted God while looking death in the eye. Children who read this book will have an opportunity to imagine what it was like to trust God

THE SINKING OF THE TITANIC AND GREAT SEA DISASTERS

Edited by Marshall Logan

Introduction by Douglas W. Phillips

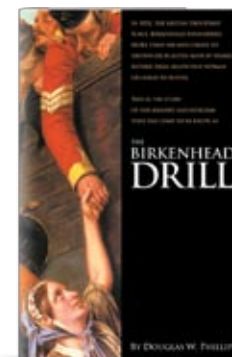

Years ago, I met Bob Garner, executive producer at Focus on the Family Films. When he was a boy, his grandmother showed him a copy of an old, illustrated book about the Titanic. The book left a deep impression on his seven-year-old mind. Years later, while working with Robert Ballard, discoverer of the Titanic, God used the memory of that book and the story of the Titanic to bring him to the Lord. Intrigued, I asked my staff to track down an original copy. What I found fascinated me: the true account of men who gave up their lives for women and children. We have received hundreds of testimonies from families that have used this book for devotionals and from boys and girls who just can't put it down. Hardback. 358 pgs. F 42411 | $24

THE BIRKENHEAD DRILL

By Douglas W. Phillips

This is the true story of the H.M. Troopship Birkenhead—of the heroism of her men who chose to be eaten by sharks or drown rather than let one woman or child die. A pastor from Connecticut writes, "I sat up last night and . . . was moved to tears, particularly at Corporal W. Smith's testimony: 'I join my regiment, and march and fight as if there had been no Birkenhead disaster. It is soldiering—and it is discipline.' My, how times have changed. Thank you. I will be using it to continue teaching my boys about courageous manhood." Paperback. 83 pgs. F 42157 | $8

Best Creation Films

MOODY SCIENCE DVD COLLECTION, VOLUMES 1-19

When my first son was born, there was only one film series that I thoroughly trusted. I knew that these high-quality videos would be free from bad attitudes, false philosophies, and noxious sounds. I also knew that the films would cultivate a taste for beauty, an appreciation for the natural world, a love of science, and a sound perspective on the Creator. And they were fun, too!

would be free from bad attitudes, false philosophies, and noxious sounds. I also knew that the films would cultivate a taste for beauty, an appreciation for the natural world, a love of science, and a sound

These films truly capture the imagination of a child. Dr. Irwin Moon of Moody Science turned to the world of the Venus fly trap, secret technologies of ancient man, and many more mysteries of Creation to entertain and teach character. Hundreds of thousands of children, like my own, have grown up with the memorable stories documented in these wonderful films, and I am always amazed to see with what accuracy they recount detail after detail. Typical playing time 28 mins. each. 3+

Biblical Egyptology

UNWRAPPING THE PHARAOHS: HOW EGYPTIAN ARCHAEOLOGY CONFIRMS THE BIBLICAL TIMELINE

By John Ashton and David Brown

Egypt—the land of hieroglyphics, pyramids, mummies, and home to a nation which persecuted the Israelites and in consequence was judged by Jehovah with amazing plagues! Ever since Moses led the children of Israel out of Egypt, the country has been a land of mysteries. Egyptology has long been the domain of evolutionary archaeologists and chronologists who have used their work to challenge the authority of Scripture. In Unwrapping the Pharaohs, the authors have tackled a subject that has fascinated American boys and girls for over a hundred years, doing so in a manner that instructs, excites, and brings glory to God. Beautifully illustrated. Hardback. 218 pgs. F 44258 | $29

The Book that Caused a National Controversy

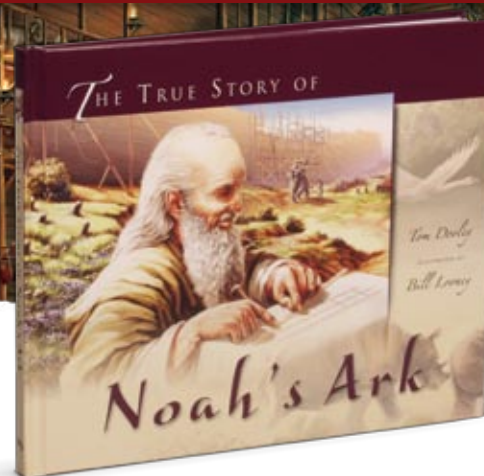

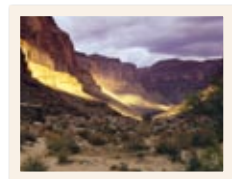

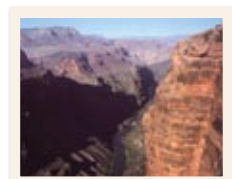

GRAND CANYON: A DIFFERENT VIEW

Written and Compiled by Canyon River Guide Tom Vail

"Separation of church and state!" they cried. "Keep religion out of science," they demanded. In 2004, liberal newspaper editors and evolutionary scientists across the nation dragged Grand Canyon National Park into a raging controversy over this beautiful, fully-illustrated volume carried in the National Park bookstores. The problem? Author Tom Vail honored the God of the Bible in a book sold on public grounds. Even more, Grand Canyon: A Different View presented in layman's terms an uncompromising biblical perspective on the formation and geology of the most famous canyon in the world. Mr. Vail offers a simple explanation of the Canyon's formation: God's world-convulsing judgment at the time of the Global Flood. The book had such an impact that the presidents of seven leading scientific societies issued a letter to the National Park Superintendent calling for its ousting, claiming it to be "at odds with the well-documented scientific understanding of Earth history." Yet the book remains for sale at Grand Canyon National Park. Give this book to your family and remind them that God's Word will not be silenced. Filled with breathtaking images. Hardback. 104 pgs. F 44884 | $17

The True Story of Noah's Ark

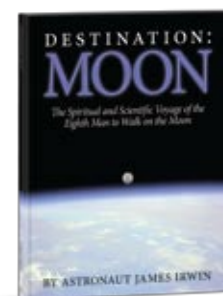

By Tom Dooley, Illustrated by Bill Looney

Finally—a visually beautiful and biblically accurate family book about Noah's Ark. The typical children's books on this subject picture a Chinese junket-type vessel with smiling giraffes sticking their heads out of the windows. Such images lead to viewing Noah's Flood as little more than a nursery fable.

The truth is that the Ark was enormous, the animals on Noah's Ark probably looked different from modern ones, and they included dinosaurs like the behemoth in the book of Job. The True Story of Noah's Ark sets the record straight. The images of the interior of the Ark are like nothing you have seen before. This is not only an account of judgment and mercy, but a tale of biblical parenting. It is the story of a "preacher of righteousness" so successful at raising his children that, for one hundred years, his sons followed their father by helping him build an ark "for the saving of his household."

Hardback. 74 pgs. F 44862 | $16

DESTINATION: MOON VE

By Astronaut James Irwin

With spectacular photos and "you are there" text, experience Apollo 15 astronaut Col. James Irwin's amazing journey, see what it's like to train as an astronaut, see Earth from space, and explore the moon. As amazing as his accomplishment was, Astronaut Irwin viewed it as insignificant compared to the accomplishments of the Creator. He spent the rest of his life sharing this message: "Jesus walking on Earth is more important than man walking on the moon." Hardback. 46 pgs. F 87562 | $16

WOOLLY MAMMOTH New!

By Michael and Beverly Oard

Why do we find frozen woolly mammoths and mammoth bones all over Siberia? The questions of what happened at the end of the Ice Age and why the woolly mammoth disappeared have been asked by many. Unfortunately, the answers given are usually in line with an evolutionary worldview. The Oards give biblically and scientifically sound answers to these relevant questions for young readers in an exciting story of one boy and his family. Hardback. 72 pgs. F 23362 | $15

The RETURN of BALLANTYNE the BRAVE

(1825-1894)

He was perhaps the most influential writer of boys' literature of his generation. He was also a devout Christian of the Scottish Covenantor kind and the only outspoken advocate for Christian boyhood to have a monument dedicated in his honor by grateful children. His name was R.M. Ballantyne, and he not only inspired a generation of writers to take up their pens in defense of the ideals of biblical manhood, but he changed the lives of hundreds of thousands of boys with his globe-trekking adventure stories that emphasized Christian character in the face of adversity. In the twentieth century, many publishers declined to carry Ballantyne because of his strong biblical emphasis. Others hoped to capitalize on the past popularity of his books, but required that Ballantyne's overt Gospel Christianity be stricken from his storylines.

Vision Forum is pleased to introduce R.M. Ballantyne to twenty-first century children, complete with the faith-affirming Christianity of the original volumes, just as intended by the author. And it is why we encourage you to make "Ballantyne the Brave" your own family's faithful friend and adventure guide, confident that the man who broke tens of thousands of boys' hearts with his passing will inspire yours with his literary return. See pg. 8 to learn more. 10 Hardback Vols. Over 3,757 pages. 51000 | $175 (Save $45)

"I never tire of reading Ballantyne. Both the integrity of the characters and the intensity of the action inspire me as a young man."
